

Volunteer Coaching Contract

I understand that my responsibilities as a Volunteer Coach are of great importance and that my actions have the potential to significantly influence the young players I coach. Therefore, I promise to uphold the following rights of young players to the best of my ability.

All participants have the right to:

- Participate in sports
- Participate at an age appropriate level corresponding with each child's maturity and ability
- Have qualified coaches
- Play as a child and not as an adult
- Participate in safe and healthy environments
- Have proper preparation for participation in sports
- Have an equal opportunity to strive for success
- Be treated with respect and dignity
- Have fun playing sports.

I also promise to conduct myself in accordance with the Coaches Code of Conduct.

Tondu United FC are committed to ensuring I have the following relevant qualifications/checks;

- DBS Check (£44)
- FAW First Aid – Football Awareness (£25)
- FAW Safeguarding Award (£25)
- FAW Football Leaders (£75)

I understand that failure to attend and complete these above courses once booked, or failure to commit to and complete a full season (August to May) could see me liable for the full costs of the above courses (£169). In addition to this I agree that any equipment provided remains the property of Tondu United FC and must be returned upon request, failure to do so could also see liable for replacement costs up to £150.
